POLICE OFFICER DEVELOPS INFORMATION TO CATCH ONE OF "MILWAUKEE'S 10 MOST WANTED"

A Milwaukee Police Officer's ability to develop good information paid off when his investigation led him to capture one of "Milwaukee's 10 Most Wanted" fugitives.

Milwaukee Police Officer David Claas, who is assigned to District 6, arrested Crystal R. Eason (DOB 4-4-84) on Wednesday, September 20, 2006 at 1:24 p.m. on the city's South Side.

Eason was wanted for Endangering Safety By Use of a Dangerous Weapon for a shooting August 20, 2006, when Eason allegedly fired shots into a house on N. 28th Street.

Officer Claas followed a series of leads that he developed in the course of his duties working in District 6.

"This is the kind of work our officers do every day, and this time it led to our getting a dangerous individual off the city's streets," said Milwaukee Police Chief Nannette Hegerty. "Officer Claas is a great example of the kind of Police Officers who are making our neighborhoods safer."
